RICHMOND, VA., January 1, 1876.

A T THE BEGINNING OF THE CENTENNIAL YEAR we take occasion to thank our patrons for the generous support extended to us in the past and to solicit a continuance of their favors in the future, with the piedge of our best efforts to serve; them faittifully. Our increased and increasing facilities and experience shall be made subservient to their interests. Whilst one of our firm attends to selling country property, the other will devote his entire energies to city business—selling property at auction or privately and the renting of houses. Respectfully, ja 1-6t.
